

Washington Healthplanfinder Business Talking Points

Washington Healthplanfinder Business is a customer-friendly, online marketplace that allows employers to compare plans, decide their contribution level and manage payment – all in one place. Small business owners can also access tax credits when they enroll through Washington Healthplanfinder Business.

More control

- Through Washington Healthplanfinder Business, small business owners can choose the range of coverage they want to offer and their contribution level.
- Employees have the freedom to view plans side by side and choose the level of coverage that fits their needs and those of their family.

Administrative ease

- Washington Healthplanfinder Business makes it easy for small business owners to see the costs and benefits of covering themselves, their families and their employees.
- Washington Healthplanfinder Business makes the administration process simple through consolidated billing, saving businesses time and hassle.

Help is available

- If you have questions, expert support is available online, on the phone and in person through local brokers.
- There are hundreds of registered brokers who can answer questions and help small businesses cover their employees through Washington Healthplanfinder Business.

Washington Healthplanfinder Business is a reliable resource and the only place where small businesses can access health insurance tax credits

- Washington Healthplanfinder has already helped a million individuals enroll in quality, affordable health coverage.
- Small business owners can access tax credits when they enroll through Washington Healthplanfinder Business.